As the tours are always planned 2 working days before the arrival and departure dates, bookings can be made up to 3 working days beforehand. Please make your bookings in writing (fax/e-mail), and always mention "Narayana Seminar/Congress" when doing so. Changes or cancellations made less than 2 working days before your journey (i.e. after the tours have been planned) are invariably subject to a fee.

You are welcome to request a specific time for collection before your departure; however, different departure times may make changes necessary (this offer is therefore non-binding). All participants should accordingly contact Express Drive 2 working days before their departure and ask about the final collection time (queries may also be made by e-mail).
