CASES

CASE 1

Thin man, age 40.

History of many chest infections, skin peeled severely since a child and dry. Bed wetting until fourteen. Grew up in a tyrannised atmosphere, father was very violent and brutal, hit and humiliated him. There was no love, no care or affection, no sense of being wanted. Every hour had to be spent working, even forgetting to sleep or eat, no play at all. Always in a state of fear of father. Father would threaten to kill him. Mother beat him frequently. Every moment was spent in fear. I was sick with fear and anxiety. I used to pray like hell for a way out.

I became rebellious, despised authority, religion. Drank alcohol and ate pork. I became completely hard on the outside and wouldn't let anyone in. Deep down I am a sad and lonely person. A citizen of nowhere - don't belong anywhere. Completely detached from the environment.

Tension in the back, neck and shoulders, middle back pain, pain in both hips. History of genital herpes, discomfort in the bladder as if too full. Many problems are on the right side. Irritable, impatient and angry. I'm fearful, a deep fear as if somebody injected a huge dose of fear into me. Violent, I feel as if a conflict with people, it leads to violence, attack, weapons. I feel in a total state of despair, deep despair when alone. I want people but I can't tolerate them, such a deep despair I'm completely alone. Cannot hold a long term relationship. Starts many relationships and then feels he has to leave. Fear is in the core of my being. My existence is futile there is no purpose to being here, a sense of being disconnected, not part of what's going on, detached as if removed from reality. I feel uprooted. I don't belong, I look at things in a detached way I want to go home but I don't know where it is, no roots. Part of me looks for someone to take care of me but I don't want to care for people. Sometimes I feel like killing myself, lots of anger.

I'm always on the move never home. In the core of my being it's as if no-one is ever there. It's at the level of my blueprint- no one there, totally unwanted. I could kill, I could kill all the world leaders. I want to own a super power with far superior weapons and tell all other governments to stop. I hate the U.S.A. I would plant an explosive devise with massive destruction capabilities in all the parliaments. I would hold all politicians to ransom to be fair, to make peace, to benefit the people. I hate injustice.

Dreams of killings, guns, fighting, sex. As a child had dreams of devils, monsters, fearful, was scared of the dark. Suffers from palpitations. Sex desire high wants many partners. Sties on the eyes < from both heat and cold. Restlessness and jerking when falling asleep.

Remedies he has had from previous homoeopath: Sulphur, Anacardium, Stramonium, Belladonna, Platina, Colocynth, Aurum, Scorpion, Arnica , Sepia, Opium, Mercury, and Aurum arsenicum, Rx: Camphor 1M.

Still in state of despair and fear. Total deep despair, I am an unfeeling person. Life is pointless and futile, irrational. > occupation < being alone. Indifference to his girl friend and to his mother. Feels separated from people. I grew up in a womb that was indifferent it gave me nothing. I can do without people I can live in a dessert island. I don't care about anyone, disconnected. Rage leading to cruelty, I would like to torture my parents while they are conscious, unfeeling. Dream of whipping Mother on the face. Suicidal thoughts, destruction, rage, violence, I feel I have no direction, I feel I am going mad. I fell like a free fall in a void for ever alone, there is no-one there, completely and utterly alone. Pain in every cell in my body, despair and wanting to die. Total and utter isolation, completely cut off.

Remedies prescribed during 1994-95 are, Sepia, Opium, Mercury, and Aurum arsenicum, with only mild benefit.

Rx: Plutonium nitricum 30 c

Six weeks later despair is much better, feels better in himself. Not so lost anymore, not crying. Depression has lifted, suicidal thoughts are gone and the deep loneliness has gone. I feel more myself. Although there have been times of rage, they pass more easily and I feel less cut off. Improvement continued for many months.
