PREFACE

The Top Ten Prescriber is presented for the interest and benefit of all Homoeopathic practitioners as well as the common readers. It is not possible for a practitioner to take a case thoroughly due to heavy work load and commitment at the hospital or a clinic. It is also not easy to give spot prescription on the basis of one or two prominent symptoms or where there are no symptoms, one sided case, or where the patient is not sharp enough to explain his subjective symptoms.

By the Grace of Almighty Allah I have succeeded in achieving my ambition in the shape of Top Ten Prescriber. I have devoted 10 years for compiling this booklet and I am sure it will prove very useful in the diagnosis and treatment of all types of ailments.

The principle of similarity of action is the only efficacious mode in Homoeopathy. Symptoms play an eminent role in homoeopathic treatment. Hence, the purpose of this booklet is to remove the difficulties being faced during consultation and selection of a similar remedy against peculiar symptoms by the students as well as qualified practitioners.

During the study I have observed from the version of the Organon of Medicine stated by James Krauss, M.D. that Dr. Hahnemann was, in all essentials, a flawless experimenter. He took four drachms of China twice a day. He had paroxysms of chill and fever. He was cured with China, Peruvian bark. Peruvian bark cures paroxysms of chill and fever because Peruvian bark produces paroxysms of chill and fever. Keeping in view the above statement I decided to compile a comprehensive prescriber based on particular symptoms of similarity.

Excerpts from Prof.
(Dr.) Altaf Hussain
Shaikh,
Top 10
Homoeopathic
Remdies for 499
common disorders

An attempt has been made in this book, to mention most prominent symptoms with a very efficacious rather a specific remedy as per homoeopathic principle of similarity, and of my own clinical experience. Alphabetical order has been maintained for quick consultation.

I can not say how much I am successful in my efforts in producing this booklet, with my sincere satisfaction and experience. Here I would like to pay my reverential regards and gratitude to my father late Hakim and Homoeopath Dr. Muhammad Ajaib, who guided me to adopt Homoeopathic system instead of Unani and Ayurvedic.

I shall be amply rewarded if this book proves fruitful to those who are interested in Homoeopathic treatment, with noble mission to cure the sufferings of humanity.

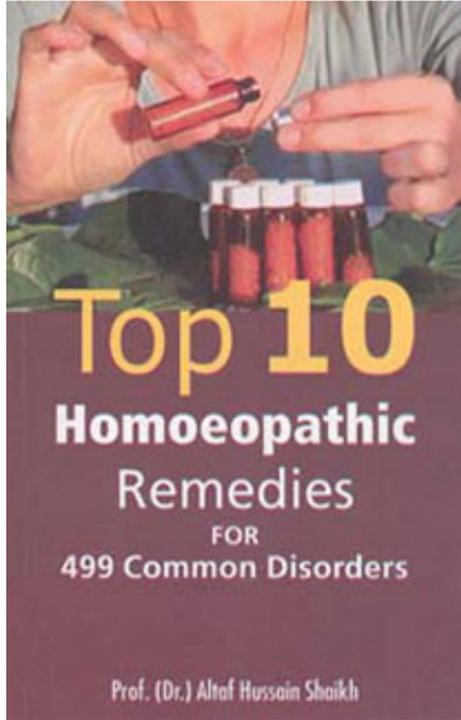

I shall be obliged to the readers, who will be kind enough to offer their valuable suggestions/comments, for further improvement of this booklet, which will lead and encourage me towards the better approach and achievement of a worthy goal.
